No license to use the intellectual property of Wirtgen India or of third parties is granted by way of these web pages.

B. Privacy

Privacy statement

Wirtgen India attaches great importance to the protection of personal data.

Personal data

Personal data is information that can be used to establish your identity. It includes information such as your name, address, postal address, telephone number. It does not include information that is not related to your identity (such as, for instance, favoured web pages or the number of users of a page).

Generally, you can make use of our online offer without disclosing your identity.

If you are interested in receiving informative literature, we ask for your name and other personal information. It is your own, free decision as to whether you enter these details.

Your details will be saved in our organization. A limited number of persons only who are concerned with the technical processing of orders or enquiries will have access to these details.

In connection with your query, data will be stored on our servers for statistical purposes that may possibly permit identification (e.g. IP address, date, time and pages viewed). It will not be used in relation to any person. We reserve the right to statistically evaluate anonymized data sets.

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google, Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies", which are text files placed on your computer, to help the website analyze how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser, however please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website. By using this website, you consent to the processing of data about you by Google in the manner and for the purposes set out above.

Forwarding personal information to third parties

When ordering brochures or sending enquiries, we shall use your personal information within the organization of Wirtgen India. We shall not forward it to third parties without your express consent. We shall forward your details to parties authorized to receive such information to the extent that we are obligated to do so by law or by court order.

Right of revocation

If you have provided us with personal data, you may demand that this data be deleted again at any given time. It is possible to have your personal data deleted by informing us accordingly to our e-mail address sales@wirtgenindia.com stating, "Delete my personal data".

Use of cookies

It is possible to use our online offer without the use of cookies.

Most browsers are set so as to accept cookies automatically. You can, however, disable the setting of cookies or adjust your browser to notify you as soon as a cookie is transmitted.

C. Legal effect of the terms of use (Severability Clause)

To the extent that parts or individual phrases of these terms of use do not, not any longer or not fully comply with the law in force at any given time, this shall not affect the contents and the validity of the remaining parts of these terms of use.
